Q: Are there any stairs?

A: Yes, but students are available to help you bring your sale items into the building at the start of the day and also at the end of the day.

Q: Will I get a coupon for a free coffee as a paid vendor?

A: Yes, you will get the coupon when you check in on the day of the event.

Q: Am I able to be an exclusive vendor for my product?

A: The way we handle this is on a first come, first served basis, i.e.: Avon, Pampered Chef, etc.

Q: What are your rules about selling baked goods?

A: We prefer that you do not sell baked goods such as cakes, cookies, and cupcakes that our Country Kitchen will also be selling that day. Baked goods that are packaged as gifts are fine.

A: Yes, as long as the table is paid in full by both parties.

Q: I sell scented items. Is this a problem?

A: We ask that if you sell strongly scented items, please cover them until a customer asks to sample or smell them, so as not to offend or overwhelm nearby vendors or customers. We also want to be considerate of those with allergies.

Q: Am I allowed to bring clothing racks or any other type of display rack?

A: No. This would interfere with the general flow of customer traffic and is not allowed. Table top racks are acceptable.
